

Expecting? Have a new baby?

New parents who work in NJ may be eligible to receive 2/3 of their wages, up to $650* a week, when taking time off of work to bond /w a new baby.

In July 2020 this amount increases to 85% of wages, up to approx. $860/week.

NJ FAMILY LEAVE INSURANCE (FLI) is available for BOTH parents to bond with a new baby in its first year!

In order to qualify, a worker must meet minimum wage requirements – had at least 20 calendar weeks of employment in NJ & earned at least $172 per week, or $8,600* in the year before taking leave.

HOW TO APPLY

New Jersey Department of Labor ONLINE

www.myleavebenefits.nj.gov

CALL

609-292-7060

FOR MORE INFORMATION
www.njtimetocare.org/NJFLI
info@njtimetocare.org

* for 2019 -- adjusted annually

FLI is available for six weeks, in July 2020 that extends to 12 consecutive weeks of paid leave.

The pregnant & delivering parent can also receive benefits through the NJ Temporary Disability Insurance program when taking time off work to prepare for & recover from childbirth.

